SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The merchant ship DOMA NATI was purchased by the Polish Government and inspected by its agents [] on 3 December 1950. The vessel was to be delivered to the Poles [] sometime in January 1951. However, because of a new [] regulation which was put into effect shortly prior to that date, delivery of the ship was not made. This [] regulation states that no ships larger than 7,000 tons or with a speed higher than 17 knots may be sold to Eastern European countries. []
